When Edinburg CISD students feel a fever or need some quick first aid, the district’s 43 registered nurses are ready to come to the defense during the 2011-2012 school year. With Edinburg CISD opening up its 31st elementary school and sixth middle school this year, the nurses will have their hands full attending to medical needs of over 34,000 students across the district’s 41 school clinics. Making up the registered nurse team are Albert Lopez, RN, Health Services Coordinator; Sylvia A. Celedon, secretary; Robert Romero, Austin Elementary; Maria G. Saavedra, Avila Elementary; Maricruz Salinas, Betts Elementary; Cathy Garza, Brewster School; Dona Cerda, Cano-Gonzalez Elementary; Lourdes Montalvo, Canterbury Elementary; Anna Capetillo, Cavazos Elementary; Rafael Gallosa, Crawford Elementary; Lori B. Smith, De la Vina Elementary; Blanca Evins, Eisenhower Elementary; Lynda Valdez, Esparza Elementary; Anadelia Arias, Escandon Elementary; Anel Chavez, Freddy Gonzalez Elementary; Nelda Mercer, Flores-Zapata Elementary; Josie Hernandez, Gorena Elementary; Kathy Lewis, Guerra Elementary; Maria Isabel Zavala, Hargill Elementary; Vanessa Rodriguez, Jefferson Elementary; Yolanda Luna, LBJ Elementary; Kathy Moses, JFK Elementary; Yvonne Trevino, Lee Elementary; Irene Robledo, Lincoln Elementary; Sylvia Rodriguez, Magee Elementary; Patricia Cortez, Monte Cristo Elementary; Linda M. Leija, Ramirez Elementary; Melinda Casarino, San Carlos Elementary; Veronica Coronado, Travis Elementary; Cynthia Saucedo, Trevino Elementary; Lupita Espinoza, Truman Elementary; Brenda Cantu, Villarreal Elementary; Clarissa Betancourt, Zavala Elementary; Jessica Vinluan, B.L. Garza Middle School; Crissy Hanson, Harwell MS; Christina Smith, Longoria MS; Dulce Cano, Memorial MS; Melva Flores, Barrientes MS; Mary Lou Garcia, South MS; Diana Martinez and Olga Carranza Edinburg High School; Terri Villarreal and Linda Saldana, Edinburg North HS; Richard Sanchez and Olga Sanchez, Johnny G. Economides HS; and nurse aides Ysenia Renteria and Olivia Fernandez.